

Leicester Recorded Music Society 2011 - 2012

10th Oct      Graham Melville
Mason

SIR CHARLES MACKERRAS

The former Chairman of the Dvořák Society has previously shared with us his profound knowledge of Czech composers. Now he pays tribute to a great interpreter of Czech and other music who died last year.

14th Nov      Peter Walden

THE OBOE AND COR ANGLAIS

The recently retired CBSO Principal Cor Anglais shares his thoughts on 'the ill winds that nobody blows any good'.

12th Dec      James Murray

CHABRIER

Mr Murray's company 'Kernow Classics' deals worldwide in vinyl LPs and provides music consultancy to the advertising and film industries. His experience as a singer in Italy, Germany and at Glyndebourne informs his expertise in opera.

9th Jan   Dr Christopher Fifield

RECORDING FOR STERLING RECORDS

The conductor, musicologist and historian recalls recording for the Swedish 'Label of Discovery', which specialises in previously unrecorded romantic works. His recording of Cliffe's First Symphony is the most popular download from the label.

13th Feb      Malcolm Goldring

BRAHMS' TRANSCRIPTIONS OF HIS OWN WORKS

Malcolm Goldring is former Assistant Principal at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama and founding Musical Director of the Midland Festival Chorus. He is also managing director of the 'Sing UK' organisation, which promotes choral events and programmes for young and old.

12th Mar      Raymond Wood

WINE, WOMAN AND SONG

Raymond Wood read music at Cambridge and is now happily and busily retired after a teaching and lecturing career. He is a well-known and popular speaker at many of the RMS societies in the Yorkshire region. Tonight he shares his enthusiasm for Viennese operetta.

The Derek Tomkins Lecture

16th Apr      Chris Ball

STICKY ENDS

A light-hearted look at death in opera from a coroner's perspective. The versatile performer, conductor, composer and erstwhile Deputy Coroner for Birmingham & Solihull will be conducting the inquests.

14th May      Catherine Wilmers

CHAMBER MUSIC BY FEMALE COMPOSERS

A professional cellist and member of the London Philharmonic for 25 years, Catherine continues to perform and teach. Her ASV CD 'A Cello Century of British Women Composers' won the 'Diapason' gold award. She also recorded film music for 'The Lord of the Rings'!

The Mac Goldsmith Memorial Lecture

11th June      AGM

Followed by a personal / idiosyncratic / eccentric / perverse (delete as applicable after listening) choice of music from Society officers.
